

BANQUET IS A BIG FUNCTION

Characteristically enthusiastic, marked with stirring addresses and featured by a prevailing spirit of good cheer that was enhanced by the enjoyable informality of the occasion, the honor banquet tendered the members of the Charleroi high school championship basketball team and others in commemoration of the season's successes, at the high school gymnasium, on Thursday night was an history making event. Representative business and professional men gathered to pay homage to the athletes. The high school student body was well represented. More than 100 were there.

The night was distinctly a night for the red and black. Even Gov. John K. Tener, at his executive mansion in Harrisburg found his thoughts carrying him back to Charleroi. Unable himself to be present he sent a telegram to Toastmaster W. R. Gaut, congratulatory to the team, that read as follows:

"Please extend my congratulations to the champions. The victory they achieved brings credit and honor to Charleroi, to their school and to themselves."

"John K. Tener."

An elegant menu was set before the hungry folk at the four tables. This menu was prepared and served by the women of the Charleroi Free Library Association and their care and attention to details in the preparation of the dainties was most evident. Red and black ribbon bows were given as favors.

The honor guests were grouped at two small tables in the center of the room, while guests were seated at long tables set on each side. Following seating and a few words of thanksgiving by O. M. Wise, the high school orchestra under direction of Prof. I. T. Daniel delighted with a selection.

Dr. F. C. Stahlman, chairman of the athletic committee of high school introduced the toastmaster, preceding his introduction with a brief account of athletic affairs in the high school.

Mr. Gaut in assuming the role of toastmaster congratulated the members of the team, Coach W. L. Lorimer, cheer leader Elsworth Hickey and the student body for their sportsmanlike conduct during the season and for their loyalty. He referred to the plan to establish a trophy room at high school and of the proposal to place the basketball won in the Monongahela game at Pittsburgh in a glass case. He aroused cheers when he stated he would provide for this basketball case a tablet suitably inscribed.

Mr. Gaut, as toastmaster, proved himself a master of wit and lent grace and dignity to the occasion by his masterly handling of his personally arranged program.

The first speaker called upon was Prof. W. L. Lorimer, whose coaching as the toastmaster said, was most effective toward bringing the championship to Charleroi. Coach Lorimer described the work of training and told how thoroughly every little detail had to be worked out.

Captain John Gaut told briefly how it seems to be captain of a winning team and spoke at greater length of the fire support that the team had received and paid compliments to the staunchness of the second team members.

Austin Stahlman, a forward, referred to the clean principles and manly

ODD FELLOWS IN THEIR NEW HALL

Charleroi lodge No. 1030, Independent Order of Odd Fellows occupied their new hall in the Bank of Charleroi building for the first time Thursday evening and officers were installed. The two combined events were celebrated by the Iris Rebeckah lodge No. 299 by the serving of a lunch that came as a surprise to the Odd Fellows.

District deputy grand master S. S. Kelly of Donora, grand marshal G. E. Baker, grand warden J. S. Crawford, grand chaplain J. W. Schlatter and grand guardian W. H. Henderhor had charge of the installation.

The newly remodeled bank hall makes a splendid meeting place for lodges. It will be used other than by the Odd Fellows.

style of play Coach Lorimer had developed and likewise spoke of the loyal spirit shown by the high school body and the second team players.

James Wagner mentioned matters pertaining to the championship season and paid Prof. T. L. Pollock, superintendent of schools compliments for his untiring efforts in behalf of the team and toward the arrangement of games.

Ray Speers, who plays a guard position on the five thanked the people for their support. He had been introduced by the toastmaster as a wall climber, and he declared it was no trick at all to climb a wall compared to making a speech entirely expressive of his true appreciation.

Eddie Lowstuter contrasted a football game with Monongahela with the recent basketball game with the same team and grew enthusiastic in his description of the contest at Pittsburgh with Monongahela. He voiced his pleasure at the way it went.

All of the second team men were called upon in order. James Ryland being first. He gave a roast for the school board. Frank Deveau, Charles Lowstuter, Aubrey Clerihue, Chester Stahlman and William Booth all voiced their appreciation of the honor being done and gave assurances that next year they would try to be deserving of praise.

John Jenkins, Charleroi's inimitable story teller was called upon, and related some dialect stories that were greeted with hearty applause.

W. D. Pollock was called upon as president of the school board. He declared that one of the influences felt from athletics was that of manliness.

Prof. T. L. Pollock, superintendent of schools in an interesting address said athletic work was a good advertisement and a good thing in the schools. He declared that lower grade pupils got into the habit of following the examples of high school athletes, and that athletics helped make good examples.

Prof. S. R. Grimm, high school principal and football coach last fall complimented the members of the basketball team for their manliness and referred back to the joys and

MANY MINERS REFUSE TO RETURN TO WORK

Breaking away from the action of the officials of the United Mine Workers in the scale agreement to continue at work until a referendum vote had been taken on the proposition to either work or strike pending a wage agreement for the district, 700 miners at Baird Friday afternoon voted to strike at once. Not only did they decide to suspend work, but they charged the mine officials with betraying their interests and in a series of drastic resolutions called upon the officials to resign. Similar action has been taken elsewhere in the country, so that it is estimated that more than 15,000 men are idle in consequence.

At least ten mines are involved in the tie up of the strike inaugurated by the Baird mass meeting, which was held in the open air. So far as known the mines involved are Black Diamond, Catsburg, Star, Cincinnati, Benola, Gallatin, Manown, Sunnyside, Equitable and Schoenberger, located on both sides of the river. The resolutions adopted are as follows:

Whereas, The condition that is now existing in the Pittsburgh District is destroying the earning capacity of the miners and

Whereas, The great expense that is placed on the miners as dues and assessments at the call of National District officials are unjust; and

Whereas, The new agreement just agreed to by our officials is a big insult to the miners of this district in so far as our officials, both National and district have deliberately turned down the condition that was agreed upon at the National Convention; and

Whereas, Through their actions we as a body of miners, here in mass meeting, think that our officials are incapable of leading this organization known as the United Mine Workers of America. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we demand that all our officials and the policy committee that had anything to do with the making of this new agreement resign their position in the United Mine Workers of America at once, for they have disgraced the miners in the eyes of the public—that have slaved in and around the mines to pay them the big salaries they have been receiving. Be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be typewritten and sent to all local unions in this district, asking them to co-operate with us in our demands and that copies be sent to all officials, and all of the policy committee asking them to step down and out, and not raise any disturbance in the ranks of the miners; and be it further resolved that we request all local unions to join us in calling a special convention for all of the Pittsburgh district, so that we can get down to business and try and right the great wrong that is imposed upon the miners in this district.

Similar action was taken at McDonald at the miners' celebration April 1, where it was voted not to go to work in what is known as the Pittsburgh district.

MINER IS FOUND DYING IN HIS OWN DOORYARD

Unconscious and in a dying condition Ned Pitts, colored was found Thursday evening lying in a clump of weeds near his shanty at Coal Bluff. The man was brought to the Memorial hospital at Monongahela where his trouble was diagnosed as pneumonia. It is not known how Pitts reached the place where he was found but it is supposed he was taken ill and was trying to reach help.

Pitts who is 50 years of age is a well known coal miner.

handle district until a wage agreement was reached. This was followed Friday by a strike at Canonsburg of the miners of the Hazel mine of the Pittsburgh-Buffalo company, between 700 and 800 who demanded pay for run of mine coal, and refused to go to work. A mass meeting was to have been held at Meadowslands Friday of the Charliers valley miners, but it failed to materialize. It is understood, however, that these miners will not go to work and this will tie up the mines at Ardun, Rich Hill, Manifold, Westland as well as the Hazel mine at Canonsburg.

Up the river conditions are unsettled, but the radical element that is objecting to the action of the policy board of the organization is apparently in control. None of the mines this morning in the vicinity of California were working—that is running coal—as not enough miners showed up to start operations. Strenuous efforts are being made among the various locals to have them petition to the district board to call another convention at Pittsburgh and rescind the action of the policy board, and not to go to work until all district grievances and claims are adjusted. There is of course a division of opinion among the miners, the more conservative ones favoring the action of the policy board—to go to work pending a settlement—and the radical ones advocating a suspension.

In case enough locals petition for another district convention, it would be two or three weeks at least, before the matter could be thrashed out. It is desired to call another convention to meet not later than April 13 by those who are revolting against the action of the policy board.

At Fayette City several of the locals have already taken action. The miners of No. 2 mine of the Pittsburgh Coal company and at Naomi voted to stay out, while the locals of Apollo, Fayette City and Redstone mines voted to return to work and the mines of the latter three were running this morning.

This revolt on the part of the miners is said to be due to the factional fight that has long been waged in the district, but which has been apparently allayed of late. When Francis Feehan was president the fight waged so fiercely that the interests of the organization in the district were jeopardized and disruption threatened. In the interests of peace and harmony President Feehan resigned and harmony on the surface at least, was apparently restored. Now the radical element seems to have become active again and the present revolt may have the effect of precipitating a general and long drawn out strike, which the district officials and executive committee of the Mine Workers have taken every possible means within their power to prevent.

OUTPUT IN STEEL IS HEAVY

All production records were broken at the mills of the Pittsburgh Steel company at Monessen during the month of March. In that period every department including the blast furnaces, open hearth, blooming and billet mills, wire mills, nail mills, cooper shop and all, turned out the largest production that the plant has ever put out in a single month. Figures are not given, but the officials claim the world's production in a single month for the open hearth and blast furnaces.

Under General Superintendent Christopher J. Mogan who lives in Charleroi who was given the general management at Monessen with the promotion of former Superintendent George Nash, now general manager of the company's interests at the Pittsburgh offices, a general forward action was inaugurated when the plant started up in full after the slump at the beginning of winter. January and February were both good months, and the latter month's production exceeded that of any February in the plant's history. March, however, proved the record breaker. By reason of that month's work approximately $300,000 was disbursed among the 5,000 employees of the Steel company and the Products company, an allied corporation.

Superintendent Mogan has received greetings and congratulations from President Wallace H. Rowe of the Pittsburgh offices for his record breaking production. Mr. Mogan, however, takes no special credit to himself, but attributes the excellent performance of his staff and the splendid spirit of efficiency that prevails throughout the entire plant.

ATTEMPT IS MADE TO SETTLE STRIKE

Governor Hatfield of West Virginia at Charleston used the long-distance telephone Friday in an effort to bring about a settlement of the long-drawn-out strike of several hundred miners of the West Virginia and Pittsburgh Coal company, at Colliers and Wellsburg in Brooke county. To Van Buren he said the chances of an arbitration agreement were good. For the miners, Bittner said he favored an arbitration.

The strikers' colony continued in tact today at Moores Knob, north of Colliers, but a move is expected momentarily by the Federal Marshals. Marshal Ned Smith and his deputies were in conference Friday.

SMITH WINS IN LIVE BIRD SHOOT

Amos Smith of New England and Albert Bakewell of South Brownsville in the third of a series of live bird shoots on Thursday decided a tie. Smith gets the title to champion. He shot 12 out of 13 birds. Bakewell only got 5 out of 15. Then he threw up the sponge, although they had previously arranged to shoot 18 birds each. At both the first and the second shoots, the two experts tied with 12 out of 13 birds each.

WHERE SUPPORT IS NEEDED
It is hoped that the radical element in the miners' organization that professes dissatisfaction with the policy of the officials of District No. 5 in trying to effect a settlement of the wage scale will not be far reaching enough to halt the proceedings now in progress. The plan outlined and pursued by the policy committee of the district organization is the best that could be adopted under the circumstances, and its wisdom is apparent. Unless unduly agitated and opposed, a peaceful adjustment of the scale for the district is in sight.

While it may be a difficult matter for the rank and file of so large an organization as the Mine Workers to see through and understand the work of its representatives, there is no doubt whatever but that the committee in charge of the district scale agreement selected the very best possible policy for the miners to pursue. It is seldom that any individual or organization ever gets at any one time in a contention all that they ask, and the next best thing to do always in such cases is to compromise on the largest possible gain. This is what the committees have done so far as future action is concerned. They have agreed that the men will continue at work until a referendum vote on a proposition of submitting a scale agreement is taken and the operators have consented to run their mines until such time.

It is up to the miners now to support their representatives who were selected to negotiate with the operators. The representatives have acted in good faith for the best interests of the men and have done the best they possibly could under the circumstances. The miners can scarcely afford to act arbitrarily and contrary to the actions of their representatives.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Col. William L. Senter of the United States Army, who used to be in charge of the rivers and harbor department at Pittsburgh and is consequently well known by all the local men at North Charleroi and other river people, is the builder of the Gatun locks and dam, the breakwater at Colon Harbor and the excavation of the channel between the Gatun locks and the Atlantic ocean of the Panama canal. Recently he contributed an interesting article to the National Geographic Society, in which he humorously describes the efforts to rid the canal zone of mosquitoes.
"In 1912 Gatun had probably the greatest influx of mosquitoes in its history," writes Col. Senter. The sanitary department determined to locate all the breeding places of mosquitoes near Gatun, catch mosquitoes at each place, and after painting them turn them loose and determine from the color of the mosquitoes caught in Gatun from what point they came. I went down there one morning to see how they were caught and painted. Mosquito bars were suspended from limbs tied up at the bottom. They had thousands of mosquitoes in them ready to be sprayed with a colored liquid and the sanitary inspector was asked how he caught them. He said: "We have a more scientific way, but this had to be done in a hurry. We simply let the mosquito bar down as you would open a bed left one side of it open, and put a Jamaica negro in there for bait. As soon as the mosquito bar is full the bait is removed and the end tied up."
"I saw a Jamaica negro standing there."
"John, were you the bait in that bar?" I asked and he replied:
"Yes boss; that is the easiest money I ever earned—10 cents an hour for sitting there and doing nothing but just inviting the mosquitoes in."

EXCLUSIVE AND CORRECT APPAREL
For the Spring and Summer Seasons
IN TIME FOR EASTER

Easter Millinery

The cream of French Millinery reaches American Women only through a very small number of establishments. McCreery's is one of these. Our high standing is due largely to the discriminating demands of our customers. Our buyer knows the gifted Paris designers and their respective talents. Our opportunity to get the best selections is due in a measure to the influence of our permanent Paris headquarters. These are very important considerations when you are deciding through what channel you will receive your fashions.

You can choose a real French Hat never displayed except in our Millinery Salon from a very large number of importations at from $25.00 upward.

Or at a somewhat lower cost you can have our own accurate copies of French models, made up in shapes bought and imported by us for this purpose, or modish copies and adaptations designed or developed by New York Milliners of note and shown in our French Room at $15.00, $22.50, $25.00 up. Domestic Trimmed Hats $7.50, $10.00 and $12.50. Untrimmed Hats $5.00 and $7.50.

All the other important accessories for your new Spring and Summer wardrobe, in assortments in which every new style phase is represented. The great advantage we emphasize is that you can make no mistake in selecting any of the merchandise we put before you.

IT IS TIME TO GET READY FOR EASTER

Our Parisian and New York connections advise us of advantages of the comparative tardiness of Easter.

Early developments of the first fashions confirm our judgment in selecting the successful Fashion tendencies of the 1914 Season. We show you only those models that are on lines already assured of leadership for the season.

But while our models follow certain general tendencies that have come to the front as certain to reign, the garments themselves are the out-put of about twenty-five importing designers, whom we have confined to McCreery and Company, in Pittsburgh.

So to correctness we add exclusiveness. It is time to get ready for Easter.

FRAIL, WEAKLY CHILD Made Strong by Vinol

So many cases like this are coming to our attention for the benefit of fathers and mothers of weak, sickly, ailing children in this vicinity we publish the following letter.

Mrs. J. P. Weatherford, Litchfield, Ill., says: "We have had an invalid child for the past nine years and until we began using Vinol, we sometimes thought there was little hope for him. He would have terrible coughing spells at night and they would leave him so exhausted. We tried everything, but to no avail. At last some one suggested that we try Vinol, and we noticed a change in him from the very first. The coughing spells ceased and he gained in strength right along. We would not be without it and would advise parents who have frail and weakly children to try Vinol."

This is because the child needed the strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains. No oil, delicious taste. Children love it. We give back your money if Vinol does not benefit. Piper Bros. Drug-gists, Charleroi, Pa.

P. S.—For rough, scaly skin, try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

OLD SOLDIER PRAISES THE TISSUE BUILDER

Many recent statements made about Vin Hepatica, the notable new preparation that is being introduced for the first time in America by Lieutenant R. T. Ballard, the retired army officer and is now being sold at Piper's Pharmacy, corner Fifth and Fallowfield avenue, have the exclusive agency for this remarkable remedy include one by C. B. Smith, who resides at No. 22 Maplewood Ave., Craigho, a suburb of Pittsburgh. Mr. Smith is an old soldier, 75 years of age, and served throughout the war, with the 100th Pa. Vol. Inf.

"I have had catarrh since the war," said Mr. Smith. "I could never get any relief until taking Vin Hepatica, and now I can truthfully recommend it."
